Mrs. M. E. Bonner was honored on Thursday at a delightful birthday party given in honor of the ninth birthday anniversary of her little daughter, Dorothy Louise Bonner.

The children met at Adelphi Park where many games were played, after which they went to the Adelphi where Mrs. Bonner assisted in her mother's Miss Alice, Ethelreda, and Mrs. L. Russell served many refreshments of ice cream and cake. Refreshing baskets were the gifts to take, and a pretty birthday cake with eight tiny pink candles, formed the center feature of decoration.

The guests, besides the hostess, were Anna Gathen, Marie Schaefer, Misses Mary, Esther, Virginia, Emma, Georgia, Knapp, Tillie, Whittaker, Virginia, Mrs. Morris Russell, Johnnie Nichols, Leona, Dorothy, Gertrude and Radcliffe, Vera, Cleo, May, Miss Margaret, actress, Frances Clark, Fannie Tamm, Katherine, Diana, Billie, Lorraine, Carroll, Melba, Fannie Dunn, Frances, Edith, Dennis, Alison, Brooks, W. H. Steele and Robert Edwards.

Mrs. Snyder Compliments—

Mrs. Lydia H. Snyder, manager of Mrs. and Mrs. H. P. Snyder's beauty parlor, has been employed in the El Paso branch of the West Texas Bank since 1915, received complimentary commendations of the service and especially service and expression of courtesy by the manager whom she admires for her friendliness in the office.

On the day of the official closing of the spring thirty-six of the leading physicians and business firms of El Paso in a drive to Mrs. Snyder expressed their appreciation of the service offered and continuing with which she had handled the business of the office and they also presented small gold-colored, engraved leather binders. News of the inspection was noted in a recent issue of the El Paso Times.

Mrs. Snyder will remain in El Paso where she has accepted another position.

Missionary Meeting—

Dr. Edward's Olive Tablets—the substitutes for calomel—have had sure success and their effect on the liver is also a distinct advantage. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to furnish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong brands of calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

More headache, "dullness" and thus jaded feelings come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "loosey" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clogged brain and how they "pick up" the spirits. 10c and 25c a box. All druggists.

SENATORS DAUGHTERS IN DOUBLE WEDDING

Washington, April 21.—The most interesting social event the capital has known for several months is to take place outside the capital.

The double wedding of the "Overman girls," daughters of Senator and Mrs. Lee Overman of North Carolina, which is to be celebrated April 26th, will be at the Overman household in Salisbury, North Carolina.

The two youngest daughters of the distinguished westerners from North Carolina have been residents in the vicinity of official Washington recently for several years. The both became engaged about the same time—and indicated a double wedding—and their old home town.

The older girl, Mrs. Ruthven Overman, will marry Mr. George Peabody of Salisbury, North Carolina, and her younger sister, Grace Overman, is to marry Mr. Roger Morris, son of Senator Morris of North Carolina.

The large estate of Dowdy in Washington is disappointed in the number of guests to be invited both now, but as one group is definitely more, and the other more a scattering from a neighboring city, the names of the North Carolina houses dwelling in their families and neighboring estates.

Washington hospitality will be at its glow when Woodlawn's doors will open again for the wedding.

These sisters will be the heroines of a double wedding. They are Miss Grace Overman, above, and Miss Kathryn Overman, daughter of the general from North Carolina.

ENGLISH PROGRAM CALLS FOR 300000 HOUSES

London, April 21.—England will have to build 100,000 houses in the next years to overcome the bad housing conditions which the government is now trying to remedy. Some are being asked to increase wages of building masters so that young persons of their age may be enabled. The demand because of the lack of family in the planning problem is growing rapidly.
